

Standards & USNC: Important to Eaton

ANSI Company Member Forum 27-Oct. 2021

Kevin Lippert

World Standards Week

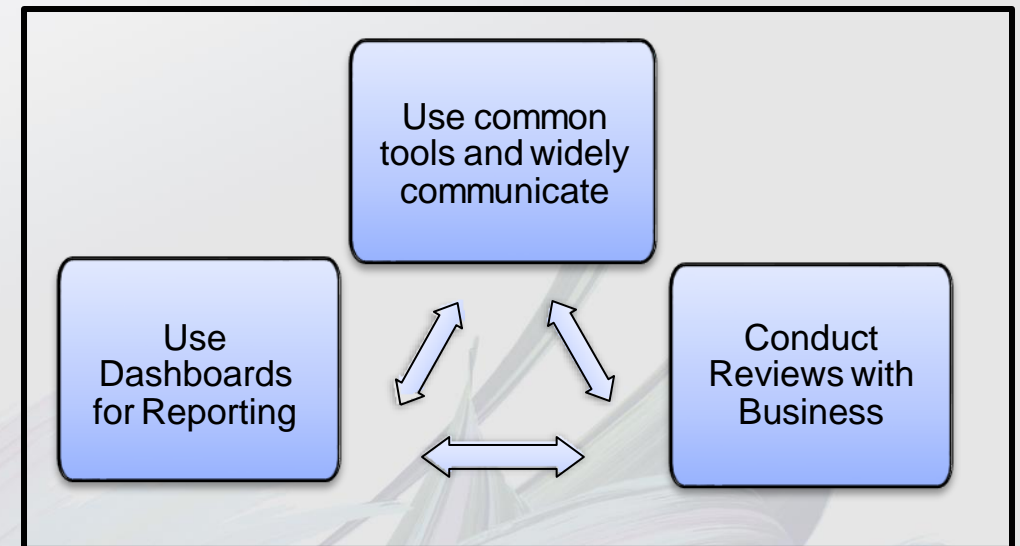

Standards are of strategic importance to Eaton

- Many Eaton products are regulated / defined by standards
- Conformity Assessment is as important as standards
- As a US based company, we continue to grow international recognition

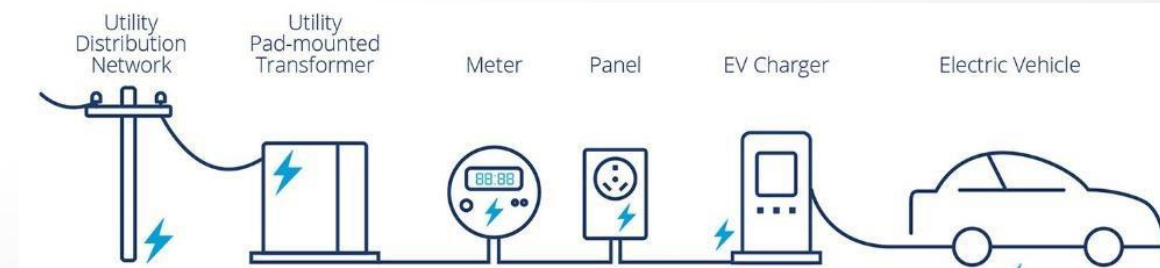

Integrate standards involvement

- Educate Senior management of the benefits
- Get businesses and their leaders into the process
- Create a cadence using standard operating processes & procedures

Identify the benefits

- Advanced involvement in emerging technologies
- Ability to influence
- Access to industry experts
- Build your individual networking

Benefits from USNC Presidency

- Promote US interests & raise Eaton global visibility
 - IEC Council Board
 - Host of USNC meetings (USNC Council, Bi-laterals, FINCA, etc.)
 - IEC Governance Review Task Force (New SRoP)
 - IEC Strategic Planning Task Force
 - ANSI Board of Directors
 - IEC 2022 – USA Host of General Meeting

How YOU can/should get involved (or get further involved)

- Join the USNC & appropriate committee(s)
- Become a Premiere Company Member
- Opportunities for YEPs
- Volunteer to participate in Task Groups, etc.
